Great Fire at St. Paul.

A gentleman of St. Paul, writing to a friend in this city, under date of March 16th, says: "Our city was visited last night with an awful fire; some 38 buildings were burned on Third street—the principal business street of the city. Amount of loss not yet known, but large.

In addition to the above, a telegram from La Crosse brought the following particulars:

LA CROSSE, March 19.

We have reports this morning of a very extensive fire having occurred on Friday night last, in St. Paul, Minn. Thirty-four stores, comprised of dry goods, grocery, clothing stores, &c., were destroyed. One large livery stable, owned by Mr. Singley, was also burned. The burnt district is situated on 3d st., between Jackson and Roberts streets. The loss is estimated at over $100,000. We have no particulars. The fire is supposed to be the work of incendiarism.

We have also reports that the town of Black River Falls, Jackson county, Wis., was nearly all destroyed by fire last night. We have no particulars.

Wreck of the American Ship Luna—Loss of over One Hundred Lives.

The reported catastrophe to the American ship Luna, outward bound to New Orleans, with a loss of upwards of one hundred lives, on the rocks off Barfleur, near Cherbourg, last Sunday, is unhappily confirmed. The loss took place about mid-day. For hours the ill-fated ship was seen off the coast, battling with a gale of wind from the northwest, till at length she appeared to become unmanageable, and was driven on to the rocks about 200 fathoms from the shore, where she speedily became a total wreck.—Her perilous position was observed by the people on the shore long before she struck, but, owing to the terrible sea rolling in, it was utterly impossible—indeed beyond human power—to launch a boat through the surf to go to the assistance of the ship and her living freight, the whole of whom, numbering one hundred and seven persons, perished.—Two only reached the shore alive; one of them died almost immediately afterwards. The survivor, an Italian named Clement, was unable to give any satisfactory details of the loss of the ship for two or three days afterwards, owing to his greatly exhausted condition. He stated that the ship sailed from Havre on the previous day (Friday) and that there were on board seventy-six passengers, of whom forty-seven were men, twenty-seven women, and one child. The crew mustered twenty-six hands, besides a French cook for the passengers. Her cargo was of general description. The Captain saw his imminent danger when off Barfleur, and attempted to beach the ship on a sand-bank situate between Barfleur Church and the lighthouse, where there might be a chance of saving the passengers, but in running for it the violence of the gale and heavy sea drove her on the rock, where her destruction followed. The coast is strewn with the wreck. Many bodies have been washed up.—London Observer.

THE COMING FIGHT—DEPARTURES FOR EUROPE.—The steamship Africa sailed from this port for Liverpool yesterday. She carried full freight, $364 990 in specie, and 94 passengers, among whom were four noted sporting-men of the city, viz: John Morrissey, Hughes, (Morrissey's Man-Friday,) Daniel Cunningham, who killed "Paudeen" some time ago, and John Terley, of Troy. Dr. Augustus Rawlings and Mr. Berghaus of Frank Leslie's, were also passengers.—This select company go out to witness the fight between Tom Sayers and the Benicia Boy; the two gentlemen last named as correspondent and artist of the Illustrated Newspaper. The departure of Morrissey and his friends brought a vast gathering of "the fancy" around the steamboat's dock, who cheered vigorously as the vessel got under way. About five minutes previous to sailing, Mr Morrissey received the sad intelligence by telegraph that his mother was dead.—He remarked that he had the consolation of knowing that the last sad rites would be properly attended to.

RHETORICAL BLOSSOMS.—The following from the Madison Patriot, is a beautiful specimen of "Pump's" last effort:

"We shall take all things coolly, however, well knowing that there is nothing known to philosophy so mean and nauseous that may not be brought to some good account. Even the toad stool will not manure—the industrious honey bee extracts honey from the most poisonous flower. The sun is often obscured by clouds and fog. Even "Pump" Carpenter is often abused by those who have a better than the Golden Rule, and yet are none too righteous to drink the skimmilk of the "first law of nature."

KILBOURN DAM.—Our old time friends, Lafe Buck and Ben Matthews, who returned last evening from Mississippi, inform us that it was reported at New Lisbon, that Mr. Bliss had executed his contract to tear out the Kilbourn Dam, and that the water would be let through to-day.—Wood Co. Rep. 17th.

THE CITY.

MORE CORRUPTION.—It will be seen by a communication elsewhere, that the School Teachers accuse our Reporter of what—taken in a professional light, and to speak according to the prevailing fashion—may be called corruption. It seems the Reporter stumbled on a meeting of the Teachers rather unexpectedly, and resolved to "take notes;" so when the President took his chair, Reporter took the table and sharpened his pencil. After waiting sometime and admiring the lady Teachers, a resolution was put to adopt a Committee to draft resolutions. Somebody said "aye" and it was adopted. The President then commenced to appoint a committee, by naming Mr. MCKINDLEY; but Mr. MCKINDLEY declined serving. There were gossipping persons who had said certain things outside, and though he was heart and hand with the Teachers, he did not wish to serve in any official capacity. This meeting, he said, had been charged to him, and he had been accused of getting up an excitement among the Teachers, advising them to resign, &c.; for these reasons he preferred some other gentlemen would serve.

The President then called on Mr. BATEMAN, but Mr. BATEMAN declined to serve from "ignorance of the objects," &c. Mr. KURSTEINER declined. Miss OSGOOD declined. Prof. LARKIN declined. Our reporter here sharpened his pencil. Mr. SPAULDING declined. Mr COE declined.—HILMANTEL declined. Our reporter counted the number present and determined to wait until they had all declined. Finally one gentleman volunteered and the committee went out. When they came in again they read a long preamble, which has been published, relative to nothing in general, with a small suggestion at the bottom in lieu of a resolution. On this report ensued a highly entertaining debate in which personal matters and private piques were ventilated freely.—On the motion to strike out what was said in reference to the High Schools, Mr. MCKINDLEY thought the only valuable part of the report was the touch which related to the High Schools.

Our reporter sharpened his pencil, and asked a teacher near him if there was not a back door that he might slip out of. He was, however, compelled to listen to Messrs. LARKIN, KURSTEINER and DAVIS extemporize at some length, to the edification of themselves. And when the meeting adjourned, he had some doubts in his own mind about the propriety of making any mention of the meeting at all. However, the report as published appeared, and Mr. MCKINDLEY'S name left out. A storm followed. The other gentlemen, who no doubt had a vague idea of running for the Superintendent's office, were incensed, and after a good deal of enquiry, they came to the ultimate conclusion (no doubt) that our reporter received at one time two undershirts, one pair of stockings, and a box of blacking from Mr. MCKINDLEY, on consideration that the name should be suppressed in the report. It is unfortunate for the reporter that his public did not know of his intention before hand, or he might have received sundry perquisites to have suppressed the whole thing.

THE FIREMEN'S ELECTION.—The annual election of Chief and Assistant Engineers, took place yesterday, and resulted in the choice of J. H. EVISTON for Chief, F. MCCORMICK, for 2d Assistant and Mr. WILLIAMS, of No. 6, for 3d Assistant. Mr. EVISTON had a majority of 297 and MCCORMICK 44.

There were four candidates for the office of 2d Assistant. The number of votes received for each stood thus on the first ballots: MCCORMICK, 141, WAEGLE, 117, QUINN, 60, DALY, 40. On the second ballot (necessary to a choice) DALY and QUINN withdrew and MCCORMICK received 200 votes, and was elected. WEAGLIE receiving only 156. Everything passed off quietly though considerable enthusiasm was manifested by the firemen during the election.

The following are the names of the Fire Wardens elected:

FIRE WARDENS.

First District.—W. SPENCE and JOHN KOHLER.

Second District.—H. MOORE and N. KERNEL.

Third District.—JAS. O'BRIEN, and P. HANLEY.

Fourth District.—P. JACOBUS and J. MARCUS.

Fifth District.—C. MCDERMOTT and ADAM HUPLEST.

A POLITICO-MILITARY SOMERSAULT.—The Saturday Gazette, finding probably that after all life was but a dream, and the editor's talents better adapted to the capacity of Milwaukee Democrats than the literati of this unexceptionable town, proposes to the former to come out and advocate the great and self-evident falsities of undiluted Democracy. Literary papers in Milwaukee may reasonably be expected to undergo remarkable transformations, but this is a touch of mytemphyscosis we did not expect.

The only consolation that we can glean from the fact is, that the Saturday Gazette, under its present editor, will make a more able political sheet than the one we have at present, the editor of which foolishly enough employs his time in rearing up every morning two or three editorial bags of wind, only to be pierced before night by some Republican "sub."

THE NEW GROCERY at the corner of Wisconsin and Milwaukee streets is a great convenience and has long been needed in just that spot. The proprietor is a gentleman and will treat his customers as they like to be treated. His stock of teas and sugars are unequalled, we have tried them; his supply of fruits, pickles, sauces and conserves is both large and fresh. To the Seventh Ward folks who go up Wisconsin street, we drop this piece of advice—call and see Mr. KNIGHT and try his goods.

IF THERE was any bell in town that did not ring yesterday morning, we are uninformed of the fact. We hunted over the almanac, but could not discover that it was—in any other than a meteorological sense—a "glorious day." But we are told the occasion of the bellicose demonstration was the firemen's election. What the bells have to do with electing a Chief Engineer, we are at a loss to say.

LOLA MONTES.—This noted woman will deliver a lecture, on Wednesday evening, at Albany Hall. Subject, "John Bull at Home." LOLA MONTES has been favorably received all over the country; her lectures are remarkable for their sound sense and satire, and have been highly spoken of by the Eastern Press, Tickets 25 cents.

IT IS WORTHY OF NOTICE how great an admirer of BEECHER the editor of the News has become of late. He publishes his sermons, and quotes his brilliancies in all his leaders. Thus interlarding the pure essence of of democracy with bits of "fanaticism" to make it readable and "easy to take."

SEVERAL faint claps of thunder were heard on Sunday night. We are having all the premonitory symptoms of an early spring.

GENERAL ADVICE.

Oh, fair white city,
Isn't it a dreadful pity,
That you're so white
And so easily soiled!
You'll soon present a sight,
Not very much unlike
A "huckleberry" pudding boiled.

Not that we fear official sins
By any means, oh, no!
'Twill not amount to one small row of pins,
This last official blow,
Nobody's guilty—that's a legal fact,—
Until he's proven so!

That, you may think,
Is policy's best plea,
When on the dang'rous brink
Of infamy,
Think what you please, but we
Would not have justice draw
From precedents its course,
And execute Lynch law,
For don't you see, perforce,
It wouldn't draw.

By that we mean
Not to be too obscure, but clean,
Because one man, for all that
He affected
Had double warrants daily,
He should be re-elected
To office—or "Old Bailey."

The innocent might jump,
From all they read,
To the conclusion without extra heed,
That Madison's air-Pump
Was here indeed,
So great a vacuum in city funds,
And such a most unusual "bleed,"
It beats great guns,

But jump they need not, yet at all,
A little time will show things on the square,
And what looks now like a great city haul,
Will vanish into strong north-eastern air.
Don't fret
At what investigating people say,
The end's not yet.

Our city has a generous heart,
And to save trouble,
When men are wide-awake and smart
It pays them double.
Though grocers, butchers, folks
With boarders,
Have well nigh run themselves ashore
Obeying "orders."

Don't raise commotion,
This task of stealing
And double dealing
Is a ridiculous notion.
There's generous people left
Our governor is one,
And full of fun,
Who did not cut off Barry's head,
As he was well advised,
But a more merciful cut-off devised,
And took his arms instead.
The joke shows through,
He evidently thought,
The latter wrought
Most mischief of the two.

Don't let the preachers,
Or the school teachers,
Stir up your blood.
The present, gratifying shower,
Will swell out in the 'leventh hour,
And you'll exclaim with classic power,
"There is a flood."

So hold your horses now and then,
Till things get stronger,
You've waited on the party men,
So wait a little longer.
When that investigating gun is loaded,
With all the facts now sought,
You'll hear a loud report,
Of things exploded.

If certain officers have been too fast,
They're now made faster.
So what's the use of drawing on the past,
Tear off the plaster.
No gardener ever yet reaped fruit
From sheer disaster.
Don't get together in a crowd
And air your eloquence aloud,
Until you're taken with a generous stitch
And start committees,
And talk of Messrs. Crounse & Fitch,
And rescued cities.
Don't get into a fever,
It doesn't pay.
The better way,
Is to take up the lever
That lately turned Chicago upside down,
And get it under our town;
'Twill raise it,
And when 'tis done you'll praise it.

Municipal Court—March 19.

THE CITY OFFICIALS.—A large crowd was present yesterday morning at the examination of Messrs. Gardiner and Lynch.

For the prosecution, Messrs. Corson, Butler and Ryan. Messrs. Winfield Smith and J. E. Arnold appeared for Gardiner, and Levi Hubbell and M. H. Carpenter for Lynch.

The complaint, as read by Mr. Butler, charged Gardiner and Lynch with embezzlement to the amount of $5,000.

Twelve new complaints were made against the defendants yesterday morning, which are in amount as follows:

Against Gardiner—$1,000, preferred by Mr. Page: $200, by Mr. Allis; $100 by Mr. Page; $100 by Mr. West; $200 by Mr. Page; $200 by Mr. Allis.

Against Lynch—$229 20, preferred by Mr. Lockwood; $250 by Mr. Allis; $500 by Mr. Tesch; $250 by Mr. Lockwood; $250 by Mr. Ellis.

Against Gardiner and Lynch—$5,000 embezzlement, preferred by H. L. Page. Total $8,279 20.

The following minor cases were disposed of:

Samuel Jones, disorderly; penalty and costs $2 50. Paid.

John Peterson, drunk; penalty and costs $3 89 or 5 days in jail. Committed.

Chasles Webber, disorderly; penalty and costs $14 47 or 30 days in jail. Committed.

In the afternoon Mr. CARPENTER, on behalf of Mr. LYNCH, waived an examination, and the Court then proceeded with the examination of E. L'H. GARDINER.

Mr. A. R. R. BUTLER stated that after some consultation with counsel, they proposed to put in all the evidence against Mr. GARDINER at once, to save time, and let them be passed on separately.

Before putting the witness on the stand, he would call the Court's attention to the various charges. GARDINER is charged jointly with LYNCH for embezzlement to the amount of $5,000.

Mr. BUTLER then read the charges of forgery against E. L'H. GARDINER, separately, which were as follows:

Complaint of J. H. TESCH on the 20th of July last, forging an endorsement of CHASE & SON, per A. L. E., to order of $500 uttering and publishing the same. Complaint of H. L. PAGE for forging the same endorsement to order of $100. Complaint of E P. ALLIS for forging same endorsement to $100 order. Complaints of H. L. PAGE, S. C. WEST, and J. H. TESCH for forging same endorsement to 3 orders of $50 each, and complaint of embezzling $2,000 preferred on 15th March—there being 7 complaints in all.

H. L. PAGE—sworn—I am Mayor of this city; have been since April last; I knew the defendant, GARDINER; he is Comptroller of this city; has been since April 14, 1856; has been in the discharge of his duties since; I have participated and aided in the recent investigations. The process of collecting claims against the city is as follows: Claims are first presented in either Board—referred to the appropriate committee—on the report of the committee, if allowed by that Board, is then referred to the appropriate committee of the other Board, if allowed by that Board it is then sent to the Comptroller.

If audited by him it is entered upon his books as allowed, sent to the Clerk, audited and endorsed by the Comptroller. The Clerk draws orders to the amount of the claim as allowed, signed by the Mayor and Clerk, then the orders are sent back to the Comptroller. If found to correspond with the amount as allowed on the claim, the order or orders is countersigned by the Comptroller, entered upon his books, the books referring numbers, amounts, or sum total of the orders. The order is then negotiable by endorsement, and delivered to the party generally by the Clerk. The book in which accounts, numbers and amounts are kept, is in the custody of the Comptroller.

Communication from the Teachers of the Public Schools of the City of Milwaukee.

To the Board of School Commissioners of the City of Milwaukee.

GENTLEMEN:—The undersigned being convinced that a false impression has been created by the report which appeared in the SENTINEL of Wednesday morning last, of a Teachers Meeting held on the previous evening at the Seventh Ward School House, deem it proper, in justice to the School Board and themselves, to made the following statement:

At the suggestion of Messrs. MCKINDLEY and FORD, a meeting of Teachers was held at the Seventh Ward School House, on Tuesday evening, March 6th, for the purpose of considering what ought to be done, in view of their present financial embarrassments. There being but few persons present, the meeting adjourned till the Tuesday evening of the following week, without taking any action. A few evenings subsequently, Messrs. FORD, MCKINDLEY, DAVIS and MCALISTER, happening to meet at the Superintendent's office, it was suggested that some one prepare a report, as a basis of action for the next meeting.

Mr. MCKINDLEY then proposed that a lawyer be engaged to draw up such a paper, as he had not time to do it himself. Mr. FORD objected to this course, and requested that it be prepared by Messrs. MCALISTER and DAVIS.

After the substance or plan of the proposed report had been set forth, those gentlemen consented to act.

The meeting of the 13th inst. having convened according to adjournment, Mr. FORD took the Chair, and Mr. GEO. DIMICK was appointed Secretary. The report published in the SENTINEL of March 14th was presented to the meeting for their consideration.

Mr. BATEMAN moved to amend it by striking out the part relating to the High School, which motion was supported by Messrs. KURSTEINER and LARKIN, and opposed by Mr. MCKINDLEY.

After the matter had been fully discussed, Mr. DAVIS moved to strike out all the report except the last clause referring to the appointment of a committee to present the grievances of the Teachers to the Common Council. This motion was adopted by the meeting, Mr. MCKINDLEY alone voting in negative.

The remarks of the gentlemen who spoke in favor of Mr. BATEMAN's motion have been grossly misrepresented and falsified in the SENTINEL's report. For example: the substance of Prof. LARKINS remarks was to the effect that the teachers of this city were employed and working under a system of schools for which they are not responsible, and which it is not the prerogative of this meeting to discuss.—He was therefore in favor of the amendment to strike out the portion referring to High Schools. He adduced, as another reason why the motion should prevail, that the teachers had not met for considering the sources of their embarrassments; that if we were to examine the rumored sources of expenditure, and of the present financial difficulties, we should find a large amount of expenditures which would take precedence of those enumerated in the report. The whole substance of his remarks was opposed to the consideration of the sources of our pecuniary troubles, and in favor of the motion of Mr. BATEMAN.

Prof. KURSTEINER assigned as a reason for supporting Mr. BATEMAN's motion, that the High Schools were necessary to prepare material for a real High School, to be established at some future time.

The substance of Mr. MCKINDLEY remarks was as follows: That the pith of the whole thing, (alluding to the report,) was the part relating to the High Schools; that there was no demand for the two High Schools in the city, and that there were not more than twenty scholars in the Seventh Ward High School prepared for a High School, while every inch of the Seventh Ward High School room was needed for Grammar School purposes; and that he was in favor of investigating all the causes of our indebtedness.

It was a matter of surprise to all that Mr. MCKINDLEY's name did not appear in the SENTINEL's report, until the fact transpired that the omission was due to his own intervention.

We feel compelled to state it as our opinion that this garbled report was calculated to place the persons named in a false position, and to prejudice the public mind against them. But while we regret the necessity of making this correction, we cannot refrain from expressing the confidence that no one will allow himself to be misled by such unworthy and sinister misrepresentations.

JONATHAN FORD,	JAS. MCALISTER,
DEWITT DAVIS,	AUG. KURSTEINER,
J. E. BATEMAN,	E. P. LARKIN.

The above communication is intended to convey the impression that Mr. MCKINDLEY was the instigator and the principal actor in the meeting of teachers referred to. We deem it but justice to this gentleman, as a disinterested party, to state that he took no active part in the meeting Messrs. DAVIS, FORD, MCALISTER and LARKIN being the speakers, and that they animadverted in a strange, and to us silly manner, on the management of the Public Schools; Mr. LARKIN prefacing his speech by the remark that "he was independent of the Board of Education. Mr. MCKINDLEY made no such statement as is imputed to him above. He said nothing of investigating the sources of our pecuniary troubles, in our hearing; that subject being left for Prof. LARKIN, who said:

"If it is our province to array the present causes of the deficiency in the school fund, we had better take up the consideration of monies spent for chandeliers, carpets, &c." and he footed up a bill of several thousand dollars and pointed to the establishment of High Schools as the cause. He then alluded to the discrepancy in the salaries of ladies and gentlemen, and lugged in a wood bill which he would liked to have accounted for.

We know nothing of the relations Mr. LARKIN and his co-laborers sustain to Mr. MCKINDLEY, but we know what transpired on that evening, and have no notion of seeing the latter gentleman made to father what the rest of the malcontents are now afraid to own. The names appended to the above report are the persons who belabored the School Board and made whatever "fuss" has grown out of the meeting.

MR. RYAN'S LECTURE.—We presume from the known ability of the lecturer that the lecture last evening was a great success. But as the managers of the institution failed to furnish us with a ticket, we do not propose to say much about it. Common courtesy, if not custom, should have prompted the presentation of a free admittance to a reporter.

SERMON FOR YOUNG MEN.—On Sunday evening last Rev. J. L. CORNING delivered a sermon in the First Presbyterian Church, on the Temptations and Dangers of Public Life. The Church was well filled with a large and attentive audience, and the sermon spoken of as a brilliant effort, peculiarly applicable to the times.

HARPER FOR APRIL.—STRICKLAND & Co. have Harper for April. It contains a beautifully illustrated paper entitled "Artist life in the Highlands," and other readable articles. STRICKLAND & Co. have all the latest publications.

BROOKS, THE ARTIST, has enlarged his studio. We yesterday spent an agreeable hour among his canvasses, and advise those who never saw any of his late productions to step up over VAN COTT's and take a look. BROOKS will charge you nothing.

DON'T FORGET the Republican Club tonight at the Court House. This meeting will be for the purpose of completing the organization.

THERE was a sensation about CALEB WALL's Book Auction last evening, otherwise the town was as quiet as could be expected under the circumstances.

Official Report of the Proceedings of the Board of School Commissioners—Special Meeting.

Board met pursuant to call. President O'NIEL in the chair.

Present—Commissioners BADE, BINGHAM, CULLIGAN, DEWOLF, BEST, LUDWIG, O'NIEL, REED, SCHLŒMILCH, SEGER and WEST.

Absent—Commissioners BODE, BROWN, BURNHAM, COMSTOCK, HILLMANTEL and KING.

The Chair stated the object for which the meeting was called, viz: to satisfy the public mind that, as investigation was the order of the day, this Board was willing to have their acts investigated.

A communication was presented from the teachers, and ordered to be printed in one English and one German paper.

Commissioner CULLIGAN offered the following resolution:

Resolved, That the President and Secretary be requested to direct Mr. Chapman, Secretary of the Board of Normal Regents, to deliver to Mr. E. P. Larkin the amount of the Normal Fund to be received by him for the Normal class in the Second Ward High School of this city, to the 1st of January, 1860.

Which was adopted by the following vote:

Ayes—BINGHAM, CULLIGAN, DEWOLF, BEST, LUDWIG, O'NEIL, REED, SCHLŒMILCH, SEGER and WEST. Noes—BADE.

Mr. CULLIGAN also offered the following:

Resolved, That a committee of three be appointed to report, at its earliest convenience, an account of the transactions and expenditures of this Board for the last three years, and that said report be published in one English and German paper.

Which was adopted unanimously; and the following committee appointed, viz:

Messrs. CULLIGAN, BADE and DEWOLF.

On motion, the Superintendent was added to said committee.

The Board then adjourned.

H. H. WEST, Secretary pro tem.

PEACHBLOW POTATOES.—J. M. ALLCOTT has a supply of the famous Peachblow potatoes, which were so favorably spoken of last year at the State Fair here. They are from Sturgis, Mich., and, in the edible line, are ahead of any esculent root we ever saw. We advise farmers to secure supplies for seed.

A HUGE LOAFER.—CHAS. WEBBER was yesterday brought up before Judge MALLORY, for being disorderly. Mr. WEBBER is a huge fellow, and had occupied his time in going about and kicking up "promiscuous musses." He was fined $17 47 cts.

YOUNG MEN should attend the lecture this evening at LARIGO's State Mercantile College, to commence at 8 o'clock.

YOUNG MEN'S REPUBLICAN CLUB.—There will be a meeting at the Court House on Tuesday, the 20th inst., at 7 1-2 o'clock P. M., to perfect the organization of the Young Men's Republican Club. All Republicans desirous of uniting and acting with the club, are hereby requested to attend at the adoption of the constitution.

NEW PUBLICATIONS.—The Illustrated London News, Feb. 25th, contains a splendid colored picture, together with some beautiful wood cuts, making on the whole one of the handsomest numbers ever issued of that truly beautiful paper; "Footfalls upon the Boundary of the Other World;" "L' Femme;" Harper's Magazine for April; Godey's for April; Ballou for April. Everything that is new, in the book and periodical line is always to be had at No. 25 Wisconsin Street.

DIED:

On the 16th of January, 1860, HATTIE, daughter of QUNAS and ANNA POOL, of Lowell, Wisconsin.

At the time of her death she was on a visit to her sisters, at Wonewoc, some 60 miles from home. Her disease was erysipelas. She was confined to her bed only 4 days, when the disease terminated in her death. Her age was 22 years. She has left a large circle of relatives and friends, and not the least, the children whom she was accustomed to instruct, all deeply mourning her loss.

SOUTH AND NORTH:
OR,
Impressions Received During a Trip to Cuba and the South.
BY JOHN S. C. ABBOTT.
1 vol., 12mo, 352 pages. Price $1.
VOICE OF THE PRESS.

From the New York Independent.

The VERY BEST BOOK ON SLAVERY YET ISSUED. Sound, judicious, kind, Christian, and most timely and faithful. * * * The author rehearses in a graphic way the measures of violence which "SOUTHERN AGGRESSION" has of late so systematically pursued; and, while condemning the crazy zeal of John Brown, he shows that his heroic self-denial for the oppressed puts to shame the coward fury of the South for oppression. Yet the tone of the book, while candid, frank and manly, is always kind and gentlemanly;

NOT SECTIONAL BUT FRATERNAL; not partisan but Christian. He points the South to the simple remedy for existing evils, by substituting wages for the lash, free labor for coerced toil.

From the New York Tribune.

Its animated descriptions, and the frankness and cordiality of its tone are adapted to give it a favorable reception, even with readers who differ most widely from him in opinion. * * * The topics to which this volume is devoted, and the spirit in which they are discussed, though they may arouse a tempest of opposition from those who regard silence as the only guaranty of safety, will secure it a wider circulation among the Friends of Freedom throughout the country.

From the Atlanta (Ga.) Confederacy.

It is a contemptible Abolition production, written in a very readable style, and well calculated to taint the minds of the young.

From the Detroit Christain Herald,

It furnishes valuable information on the questions now agitating our country.

From the Hartford Evening Press.

His impressions are such as would be derived by any honest fair-minded Northern man. It is warm, direct, eloquent.

From the New York Observer.

The book is intensely and avowedly abolition.

TUESDAY MORNING, MARCH 20, 1860.

Corrupt Practices in High Places.

"When Congress assembled in December," says the N. Y. Courier & Enquirer, "there were prophecies that much time would elapse ere a Speaker would be elected. Those prophecies were fulfilled. The opposition made to the election of Mr. SHERMAN was bitter and unrelenting. The ostensible reason for it was that he had endorsed the Helper book.—When, however, Mr. SHERMAN's name was withdrawn, and that of Mr. PENNINGTON was substituted, the opposition made by the supporters of the Administration was the same as ever. They were bound to oppose the election of any person whom they knew was not a fast friend of Mr. BUCHANAN. But why was this? Why were they so determined to oppose as Speaker any man who was not with them? Why was Congress kept unorganized for weeks and weeks? Would the election of an opponent of the Administration have endangered any of the interests of the country? No! There was nothing of this kind. What Mr. BUCHANAN's friends feared was an investigation of the acts of his Administration. They knew that the election of a Republican Speaker would be followed by an investigation which they might well have good reason to fear. They did not wish the record of the past to be opened. They did not want their deeds brought to the light. Their attempts to defeat the right were not successful, and the election of Mr. PENNINGTON has been followed by the appointment of a Committee which is to make the investigation which Mr. BUCHANAN's friends feared so much. These men should have exhibited more discretion than they did when they found that the Committee was to be appointed. It would have been far wiser not to have objected to it in any way.

Other Administrations have been accused of corrupt practices, but the charges against the present one are such as, if sustained, must sink it to the lowest depths. The few investigations made in regard to the public printing, produced results of a most disgraceful character. The statements made by Mr. HICKMAN, Mr. HASKIN and Mr. ADRAIN, prove what good grounds there are for what has been said against the conduct of the President. Much was said of the peculiar influence brought to bear upon members of Congress at the time of the introduction of the Lecompton bill. Every one believed that the Administration was resorting to corrupt measures. It then had more power than it now has, and it did not fear the future.—Now, however, Mr. ADRAIN says, "During the Lecompton controversy, I was approached in such a manner as to show corruption on the part of the Administration." He does not say this privately, but from his seat in the House. Mr. HICKMAN said he had been offered more than he was worth, but had refused to sell himself. Then, too, the charges brought against the President and his friends in relation to the Post Offices and the Navy Yards, have not been forgotten. The unwarranted interference on the part of the Executive in relation to those engaged at those places, called forth at the time severe denunciations from all right-minded men.

The appointment of the Committee called for by Mr. COVODE's resolution has created no little consternation among the supporters of the Administration. That Committee will undoubtedly do its work thoroughly. It has a duty to discharge from which there must be no shrinking. The country wishes to know how far its chief officer and his associates have abused their trusts. It wishes to know exactly how much of truth there is in the charges made against them; for, on these very charges, have been based theories prejudicial to our form of government. If the present Administration has been corrupt, let it be shown. The truth, however, will not injure those whom it should not. It will not damage our republican institutions. If it be shown that corrupt practices have been resorted to, then the odium will fall on those who have disgraced themselves. It will then be seen that if the servants of the people have done wrong, they will be held to a strict account by the people. It will then be seen that if in our National Councils there are some who are willing to do wrong, there is a larger number ready to hold them up to public scorn. For the investigation, whatever may be its results, the Republican members and their allies are responsible. Had these not succeeded in electing a Speaker, the charges against the Administration would have been forever buried. They have proved themselves the true friends of the country, and if the results of the investigation are such as expected, a lesson will be taught those filling high places that will be useful to their successors. They will be taught that those who put them in those places, expect them to discharge their duties honestly.

While the COVODE Committee is doing its work at Washington, it should not be forgotten that there is work of a similar kind to be done at Albany. The manner in which the "Gridiron" bill was driven through the Senate there is almost beyond precedent. Those who voted for it have placed themselves in a most unenviable position. The mystery to most persons is, how it could have been driven through a branch of our State government which has generally been deemed more honest and conservative than the others. It seems strange that one man should have exercised so great an influence over it, especially when it is known that the effect of the bill is to increase his already immense fortune, at the expense of the rights of others. Some light is needed regarding the means by which the bill was "rushed" through. Information is wanted as to what Senators were influenced, and how they were influenced. The spirit of the age is not tolerant of corruption in high places."

THE JANESVILLE GAZETTE is hereafter to be published as an evening paper. The proprietors say:

"Several reasons have induced us to make this change, the first and most conclusive being of an economical character. We can publish an evening paper cheaper than a morning paper, even under the system we have heretofore published. Notwithstanding a very prevalent idea that our office is little short of a half million bank in its resources and profits, we can assure our friends that if any of them were required to pay its current expenses, the task would be found easier in imagination than in fact.—The diminution in expense which the change will make will be beneficial to the publishers if to nobody else."

THE DISTEMPER now prevalent among the cattle in Massachusetts, is what is called the pleuro pneumonia. The disease has been known abroad for some time, whence it has been imported here. Innoculation to prevent the spread of it has long been practiced there with success. The Joint Legislative Committee on Agriculture of the Massachusetts Legislature, at a meeting to take action in regard to the disease of that State, adopted a series of resolutions which were to be submitted to the Legislature on Tuesday. It is made the duty of owners of cattle suffering from the pleuro pneumonia to notify the Selectmen of the town, or the Mayor and Aldermen of the city in which they are kept; these, in turn, to notify the Secretary of the Board of Agriculture, who shall have power to order the destruction of the animals thus infected. Stock thus destroyed are to be appraised and their value to be paid to their owners. An appropriation of ten thousand dollars is recommended for this purpose.

DROWNED.—Johanna Morrissey, mother of John Morrissey, the pugilist, was yesterday morning found drowned in the Poestenkill creek, Rensselaer county. She was of intemperate habits, and has repeatedly served out terms of imprisonment in the Penitentiary for intoxication. In attempting to cross the bridge she probably lost her way, and walked out into the creek in a state of intoxication.—Albany Eve. Jour. 15th.

Book Notices.

WOMAN (La Femme) translated from the French of M. J. MICHELET by J. M. PALMER, M. D. New York, RUDD & CARLTON. Milwaukee, TUNIS & CO.

No book of late years has been so unjustly abused. It has been called "immoral" and "immodest;" stigmatized as purient, and by a few sagacious critics, after a superficial glance at its more tempting passages, condemned as unfit for American readers.

We have read this book with care, and our conclusion is that it is good—and by that we mean that it will exert a beneficial influence. We do not endorse all the vagaries of the author, but his main plea is for marriage; and he reasons both philosophically and poetically in its favor. He says:

"Woman cannot live without man. No more than the child without woman.

"Nature has bound up life within a triple and absolute tie: man, woman and child. Separately they are sure to perish, and are only saved together.

"In the only book of the age that contains a great poetic conception (the poem of the Last Man,) the author supposes the earth exhausted and the world about to come to an end. But there is one sublime obstacle—the world cannot come to an end while one man still lives."

Woman is treated as a being to love—as a wife. And the state of women in Paris is set forth boldly—they are defenceless, and like beasts of prey hunted by the world. In Michelet's exalted idea of the sex the female operative becomes a monstrosity.

THE FEMALE OPERATIVE.

"When the English manufacturers, enormously enriched by new machinery, complained to Pitt, saying, "We cannot go on; we do not make money enough," he gave them a terrible answer—a stain on his memory: "Take the children."

"How much more guilty are those who took woman, who opened to the wretchedness of the city girl, to the blindness of the peasant, the fatal resource of an exterminating labor and the promiscuity of factories!

"Barbarism of our West. Woman is no longer esteemed for the love and happiness of men, still less for maternity and the power of reproduction—but as an operative.

THE FRENCH WOMAN IN THE FIELDS.

"It is their own fault," says the economist. "Why are they so mad as to leave their fields and come to die of hunger in towns. If it is not the work-woman herself, it was her mother who came, and instead of a peasant, became a domestic."

"My dear sir, you do not know what country life is in France. How terrible, excessive, the labor is. Women do not till in England: they are very miserable, but yet they have sheds to protect them from the wind and rain. Germany, with its forests and its prairies, with its very slow labor, and national gentleness, does not crush out woman as we do. The durus arator of the poet has his reality scarcely anywhere but here.—Why? He is a proprietor—proprietor of little or nothing, and in debt. By a furious blind labor and unskillful agriculture, he struggles with the vulture; the land threatens to escape from him. Rather than that should happen, he will bury himself in it, if need be; but, first certainly, his wife. It is for this that he marries, in order to have a workman. In the Antilles, they have a negro; in France, we marry a wife.

"She is preferred who has a small appetite, a lithe and slender figure—from an idea that she will eat less (a historic fact.) She has a great heart, this poor French woman, and does as much or more than is required. She drives the ass (in light soils) and the man holds the plough. In any case she has the hardest part. He prunes the vine at his ease —she scrapes and digs. He has respites—she none. He has festive occasions and friends. He goes alone to the tavern—she goes for a moment to church, and there falls asleep. If he returns at night intoxicated, she is beaten, and often, which is worse, when she is enciente. Then she endures for a year her double suffering, in heat and cold —chilled by the wind—drenched by the rain daily.

* * * * * *

"Then forgive the mother—if she desires her daughter to suffer less—if she sends her to the factory; there, at least, she will have a roof over her head; or makes her a domestic in town, where she will partake of the amenities of the bourgeoisie. The girl is only too eager for that; every woman has, in fancy, little needs of elegance, finery and aristocracy.

"She is at once punished for it. She no longer sees the sun. Her mistress is often very hard, especially if the girl be pretty. She is immolated to spoiled children, vicious monkeys and cruel little cats, who make her their plaything; or else she is blamed, scolded, teased, abused. Then she would be glad to die; home-sickness takes possession of her, but she knows that her father would never receive her. She grows pale and wastes away.

"Only the master is kind to her. He would console he if her dared. He clearly sees that in her desolate state, in which she has never a word of kindness, the little one is in the power of any one who will evince the least friendship for her. The opportunity soon arrives, madame being in the country. The resistance is not great; he is her master and he is strong. She is enciente, and a great storm follows. The husband, ashamed, shrugs his shoulders. She is driven out of doors, and without bread, lives in the streets till she can go to the hospital for her accouchement. (This is the almost invariable story. See the confessions noted by physicians.)

"What will be her life, great God; what struggles, what difficulties, if she has so good a heart, so much courage, as to wish to rear her child.

THE PROPER LABOR FOR WOMEN.

"Man does not content himself with inventing machines which suppress the two great trades of (French) women, he takes possession directly of the secondary industries by which she lived, and descends to all the avocations of weakness. Can the woman, at her will, rise to the trades that demand strength, and assume those of men? By no means.

"The nonchalant and lazy ladies, buried in divans, may say as much as they like: "Woman is not an invalid." That that which is nothing when one may be nursed two or three days, becomes overwhelming to her who has no respose, and she becomes ill at once.

"In fact, woman cannot labor long, either standing or sitting. If she is always sitting, the blood rises, the breast is irritated, the stomach embarrassed, the head clogged. If she stands, like the laundress or the compositor, she has other sanguineous accidents. She can labor long only by varying her position, as she does in her household, going and coming.

"A household she ought to have, she ought to be married."

The author devotes considerable time to the infant and the child, and his remarks in this connection are as truthful as beautiful. There is a generous humanity apparent thro' out the whole work which redeems any seeming indelicacy. His style is glowing, somewhat exaggerated, but his theme is a noble and manly one, and even from a Frenchman, cannot fail to benefit both men and women who encounter it without impure motives.

THE THOUSAND WONDERFUL THINGS, comprising the marvellous and rare, odd, curious, quaint, &c., in all ages and nations, with illustrations, pp. 332. Edited by EDWARD FILLINGHAM KING, M. A. New York: DICK & FITZGERALD, Milwaukee: TUNIS & CO.

In this work we discover a rare repertoire of wonders. Curiosity is a safe dependancy for a publisher. This book appeals directly to that feeling. It is a register of what is uncommon, in fact—not fiction. We select one or two shorter passages for the edification of our readers:

ORIGIN OF THE TERM "HUMBUG."

"This now common expression, is a corruption of the word Hamburg, and originated in the following manner: During a period when war prevailed on the Continent, so many false reports and lying bulletins were fabricated at Hamburgh, that at length, when any one would signify his disbelief of a statement, he would say, 'You had that from Hamburgh,' and thus, that is Hamburgh, or humbug, became a common expression of incredulity."

CHINESE DAINTIES.

"The common people of this country seem to fare hardly and sparingly enough, but one of our Envoys praises much of the good cheer he found at the tables of the great men. They had pork, fish and poultry, prepared in a variety of ways, and very nice confectionary in abundance. The feast moreover, was served up in a very neat and cleanly manner. But there was one dainty which offended their nostrils and nearly turned their stomachs when mentioned. It consisted of three bowls of hatched eggs. When the Englishman expressed some surprise at the appearance of this portion of the repast; one of the native attendants observed that hatched eggs formed a delicacy beyond the reach of the poor—a delicacy adapted only for persons of distinction. On inquiry it was found that they cost in the market some thirty per cent. more than fresh eggs. It seems that they always form a distinguished part of every great entertainment, and that it is the practice, when invitations are sent out, to set the hens to hatching.

"The feast takes place about the tenth or twelfth day from the issuing of invitations, the eggs being then considered as ripe, and exactly in the state most agreeable and pleasant to the palate of a Chinese epicure."

Talk of "biled owl" after that.

SOUTH AND NORTH: or, Impressions received during a trip to Cuba and the South. pp. 352. By JOHN S. C. ABBOTT. New York: ABBEY & ABBOTT. Milwaukee: TUNIS & CO., Wisconsin street.

The Atlanta (Ga.) Confederacy pronounces this "a contemptible Abolition production, written in a very readable style, and well calculated to taint the minds of the young," and the New York Independent per contra concludes that it is "the very best book on Slavery yet issued."

We do not like the style entirely. It abounds in valuable information but there is a taunt in every fact which destroys the force of the truth. Mr. ABBOTT evinces a warmth hardly compatible with the assertion that he was only an unbiased observer. However, the main facts set forth can not be gainsayed. He depicts the condition of the South truthfully beyond a doubt, and then discloses a remedy, none the less efficacious that it is not original—the remedy of free labor. The following (see page 274) will give an idea of

HOW NORTH CAROLINA APPEARED TO MR. ABBOTT.

"Hardly anything can be imagined more dreary and depressing than a ride through the State of North Carolina. I wonder not that Mr. Helper has raised a cry of indignation and anguish in view of the ignorance, poverty and debasement into which the State has fallen. Straggling, beggarly villages, dilapidated houses, miserable hovels, fields abandoned to weeds, degraded negroes and ragged, pallid, half-starved looking whites, fill up the intervals between long reaches of utter desolation. No man who has passed through the State, on the line I travelled, will say that this picture is exaggerated. I do not remember that I saw a thrifty looking home, a single decent school house, or a single respectable church, from the time I entered the State until we left it. * *

"Here is a State containing fifty thousand square miles, being equal in area to all New England, with the exception of Vermont. It enjoys a warm, sunny, salubrious clime; has its mountains and its meadows; is well watered by beautiful rivers, gliding through fertile valleys. Its soil is adapted to the culture of almost everything the inhabitants could wish to raise; it abounds in valuable forests and in mineral ores, and ought to be the home of one of the most intelligent and prosperous people on the globe.

"Though thus highly favored by nature, and though one of the first settled States of the Union, slavery has paralyzed all its energies, and it stands by the side of its dilapidated and decaying sister, South Carolina, at the very bottom of the scale of American civilization.

"The whole white population of this State, which is six times as large as the State of Massachusetts, consists of but 553,028, being more than 300,000 less than the population of the little Bay State, where the songs of freedom animate to industry.

"The products of the industrial arts in Massachusetts amount annually to over $288,000,000; while citizens of North Carolina, though aided by 288,548 slaves, can produce but $9,000,000 annually. The cash value of the farms, implements and machinery of Massachusetts in 1850 was over $112,000,000; that of North Carolina, though six times as large, was less than $72,000,000. The value of real and personal estate in Massachusets was over $593,000,000; that of Carolina, including the market price of over 288,000 slaves, was less than $227,000,000, amounting not even to one half that of Massachusetts. In fact, Massachusetts is rich enough to-day, to buy the whole of North Carolina, lands, houses and "niggers," and will then have enough change left in her pocket to buy the whole of South Carolina too. Indeed, according to the census of 1850, Massachusetts, after purchasing both of the States of North and South Carolina, houses, lands, "niggers" and all, will still have over $59,000,000 in her pocket to commence paying her emancipated laborers in advance for their work."

There is a great deal of what the Southern Dogberrys will call "oderous coparisons" in this book. But we don't hesitate to say it will be extensively read and believed in.

LENT.—Lent is a Teutonic word—in German Lenz, (the Spring;) in Swiss, Glenz; in Dutch, Lent. Adelung thinks it is from the German verb leinen—to thaw. It is a Roman Catholic Fast, beginning on Ash-Wednesday, and terminating on Easter.—Originally it was but forty hours, which were extended—first to thirty-six days; and then to forty, which is its present duration. It rests upon no Biblical authority whatever but is simply a relic of Papalized heathenism, and makes a merit of eating fish instead of flesh. In our times it exerts a wholesome influence over those given to excessive eating or to excessive frivolty, (and in this regard should the Pope please, it might be safely and beneficially extended throughout the days of the entire year,) much, however, to the detriment of the theatres, operas, ballmongers and that class of amusements, all of which are piously interdicted for forty days.—Christian Intelligencer.

SOYER'S SULTANA'S SAUCE.
For Hot and Cold Dishes of all Kinds.

THIS MOST DELICIOUS and appetising Sauce, invented by the renowned "SOYER," for the London Reform Club, is, since his decease, manufactured by the well known house of CROSSE & BLACKWELL, London, from the original recipe. It is the favorite sauce in England and on the Continent, with a high and growing reputation among American Epicures, and is much approved of as a stimulant to the appetite and aid in digestion.

Opinions of the London Press.

"We recommend our correspondent to try MONS. SOYER's new Sauce, entitled the 'Sultana's Sauce.' It is made after the Turkish recipe; its flavor is excellent, and it affords considerable aid in cases of SLOW AND WEAK DIGESTION."—The Lancet.

"Savory, Piquant and Spicy, worthy the genius of Soyer."—Observer.

HOW'S MY BOY.

BY SIDNEY DOBELL.

"Ho, Sailor of the sea,
How's my boy—my boy?"
"What's your boy's name, good wife,
And in what ship sailed he?"

"My boy John—
He that went to sea—
What care I for the ship, sailor?
My boy's my boy to me.

"You come back from sea,
And not know my John?
I might as well have asked some landsman
Yonder down in the town,
There's not an ass in all the parish
But he knows my John.

"How's my boy—my boy?
And unless you let me know
I'll swear you are no sailor,
Blue jacket or no,
Brass buttons or no, sailor,
Anchor and crown or no!
Sure his ship was the 'Jolly Briton'"—
"Speak low, woman, speak low!"
"And why should I speak low, sailor,
About my own boy John?
If I was loud as I am proud,
I'd sing him over the town!
Why should I speak low, sailor?"
"The good ship went down."

"How's my boy?
What care I for the ship, sailor,
I was never aboard her.
Be she afloat or be she aground,
Sinking or swimming, I'll be bound
Her owners can afford her!
I say how's my John?"
"Every man on board went down,
Every man aboard her."
"How's my boy—my boy?
What care I for the men, sailor?
I'm not their mother—
How's my boy—my boy?
Tell me of him and no other!
How's my boy—my boy?"

HOW'S MY AUNT?

BY SIDNEY SOBELL.

"Ho! conductor of the train!
How's my aunt—my aunt?"
"What's your aunt's name, good sir?
And the date of the train I want."

"My aunt Jane—
Who came in the cars this morn—
She left in the early train.
What care I for the rest?
My aunt—my aunt is gone!

"What's the use of being conductor
If you don't know my aunt?
You might as well be a lobsterman
Baiting your traps at Nahant.
Every fool on the early train
Ought to have known my aunt.

"How's my aunt—my aunt?
Who's responsible for her?
Tell me, conductor; speak!
Or I'll have you in jail to-morrow.
Badges or no, conductor,
Conductor, or no badges,
I'll have you in jail to-morrow."

"Speak low—my dear sir—speak low."
"Why should I speak low, conductor,
About mine own aunt Jane?
Conductor, retire?
I'll send for the crier
To screech it all over the train.
Why should I speak low, conductor?"
"There's been a 'smash-up' in the train!"

"I'll show you just where we were wrecked,
By the bank there; just under the wall,
You may have the luck to detect,
'Mid the fragments some bits of your aunt.
There's an old parasol with the silk all torn off—
Two boxes of pills—and a mixture for cough—
One leg—half an ear—an old shawl,
It's just possible these are your aunt."

"How's my aunt—my aunt?
What care I for a smash in train!
It is not the smash I want.
I'll have auntie! alive or dead,
Without any legs, or without any head,
You have her that's plain;
I say, how's my aunt?"

"Every one in the train were crushed!
Minced! mangled! mushed!"
"How's my aunt—my aunt?
What care I for the rest, conductor?
I'm not their nephew!
Neither are any of them her nieces.
Lead on, conductor, show me the pieces!
How's my aunt—my aunt?"

TWENTY STEPS

TO ONE WOMAN'S HEART.

STEP SEVENTEEN.

A resolute host can always give the tone to conversation, and whatever were Pembroke Ireton's faults, want of resolution was not one of them. Thus he once more drew round the discourse to anecdotes of travel and Art; a portfolio of curious engravings was brought forward, and shown to his appreciating guests; and the marvellous Cellini cameo was once more admired, and the effect of the relievo examined by lamplight. Frances was holding it, but after one or two attempts to return it to the artist's own hand, she laid it on the table. After a little while the owner took it up, but he seemed awkward and confused, as if he knew not what to do with it. Presently he stammered out: "If Mrs. Crawford would do me the favor to accept this Minerva's head, as a slight memorial of these sittings, I should be more gratified than I can express."

"So valuable a gift!" exclaimed Frances. "Indeed, you do me to much honor, are too generous; how can I accept it?"

"I must appeal to you, Mr. Crawford," returned the painter, "to use your influence and not to disappoint me. I know no one else worthy to wear such a gem."

"It is a magnificent gift," replied Mr. Crawford, and it would be churlish indeed to refuse the acceptance of it. Yet you lay us under deep obligation."

"I am obliged," said Ireton, passing the cameo to Frances. "I can fancy it is sentient enough to know that it has only now found its true mistress."

"If I wear it, though," said Frances, holding forth her hand, and grasping that of the artist warmly, "it must be on a condition."

"Any that you please."

"Only, that you dine with us on Christmas-day, to meet dear papa," and Frances smiled as only the Ida could.

"You are most kind; I shall be proud and happy. But, ah me!" continued the artist, "I had nearly forgotten: you must have the stones that belong to the brooch, in case you prefer the setting; I do not: perhaps you will like them, though, for a ring or a clasp, and they are utterly useless to me;" and while he was thus speaking, the artist pulled out the drawer of a cabinet, in which, among ends of string and sealingwax old coins, steel-pens, worn pencils, bits of Indiarubber, and heaps of other heterogeneous refuse, there rolled about some twenty or thirty large diamonds of the finest water.

Frances Crawford was used to costly ornaments and elegant attire, and had diamonds of great price in her jewel-box at home; therefore, it was not the acquisition of the gems now offered to her that touched her heart or affected her to tears. But she instinctively felt that despite his early errors, this estranged uncle had a fine nature, for no nook or cranny of it enshrined a meanness. And it is surely one test of nobility, when a man approaches fifty, and having had the discretion to win for himself independence, has yet never sacrificed his soul to the vice of the old and the successful—avarice! Such thoughts as these rushed through Frances Crawford's heart, and seemed well-nigh to deprive her of speech; all that she could utter was, in a trembling voice, this strange rejoinder, "You will dine with us on Christmas-day, to meet papa?"

"O yes, of course, with pleasure," replied the artist: but the changes which passed across the beautiful face he had studied that day for hours could not be unobserved by him, and though without a suspicion of the truth, his curiosity was aroused, and he said smiling: "May I ask who your father is?—Perhaps an old acquaintance, or some patron of art, whom I ought to know? I need hardly say, I asked no question of your groom save your name and address."

There was again a pause, the painter wondering what could have occurred to cause the agitation he perceived; yet, amid all, congratulating himself at having caught a new expression for his Ida. "Pardon me," he continued, "if I have given pain: if this is to be an acted charade, I can await the solution."

"We meant it so," said Frances; "but I find I cannot act out my part. Ah, you have promised, and you will not recant?"

"The name!" asked Ireton, still smiling, for the fancy possessed him that it was some rival painter whom he was to meet, and towards whom rumor had fabricated some story of jealousy or envy.

"William Ireton!" said Frances very softly, yet looking, though timidly, at her uncle as she spoke.

His eyes drooped beneath her gaze, and he sank into a chair and buried his face in his hands. He sat thus for a few moments, when he arose and advancing toward Frances, wound his arms around his young relative, drew her tight to his heart, and kissed her cheek with parental fondness. All he said was: "And you must be my child henceforth—always."

It was enough. Frances laughed amid her own April tears, and wiped away those of her uncle herself, parting the thin locks which had fallen over his forehead, as she might have done the rich tresses of a pet child.—Oh, how these gestures of tenderness went to the heart of the lonely man, who had once thought the intellect able to satisfy the mighty yearnings of humanity! Still holding Frances by his side, Pembroke Ireton stretched out his hand to her husband, saying, with a sort of cheerful happiness, "A trick; but I forgive you, for it has made me a new man. Only remember, she is mine as well as yours; you must let her be my daughter."

"But, Uncle Pembroke," replied Frances, and the words ran together as if they been often coupled—"Uncle Pembroke, you will have to love Bessy and Lotty, and my tall brother Herbert, and Willy and little Charles."

"Ah, but they can never be Idas!"

"Shall we wait till Christmas-day?" asked Frances, in a whisper.

"No: the sooner we all meet the better."

"Why not to-night?" asked Edward Crawford.

"Why not, indeed? I am feverish—restless, until it is over."

STEP EIGHTEEN.

Again the family group are seated round the blind merchants, only now the tall brother who is succeeding him in his business is of the party. Again the knock at the evening hour, so unusual a time for chance visitors; again the quick ears of the blind man recognize well-known voices, and he exclaims:—"Frances and Edward—but they are not alone. If—if—it should be"——

Then the door opens, and in a few brief moments the brothers, separated for five-and-twenty years, are face to face.

At this instant, there was something curiously "regal" in the deportment of Frances Crawford. The artist's quick appreciation of her qualities had been true and deep; whenever it seemed to her worth while to lead or to govern, she did so with an authority that became her so much, and which she assumed so naturally, that no one thought of disputing it. Accordingly, she passed her arm through that of the tall brother, and motioning to the younger children to follow, led them out of the room before they had time to question her will.

"Now, stay up stairs till you are wanted," she exclaimed with her beautiful smile; "and don't detain me with questions, for they cannot do without me a moment longer. Ah, Edward," she continued, seeing her husband and her mother close by, "that is right; take dear mamma into the little drawing room. I know," and this Francis whispered to her husband—"I know mamma is thinking of my namesake, and I give you the charge to melt her to forgiveness." Then retracing her steps, she gently opened the door of the dining-room.

"It is Frances," said her father. "Come in."

"My Ida!" exclaimed the artist almost simultaneously with the other. "Yes, come to us."

The blind father was leaning one elbow on the chimney-piece—a favorite and familiar attitude with him—while his other hand rested on his brother's shoulder; for Pembroke had sunk into a chair that stood near. The light of the shaded lamp fell softly on the two countenances, showing them in full relief; and Frances was almost startled at the different expression which shone through features singularly alike in their outline. That placid expression so often remarked in the blind, seemed ruffled, it is true; but rather as a clear stream is stirred by a summer breeze in a summer sunlight, and so shines the brighter, than by any harsher cause. He looked ten years the younger of the two.

There were lines of positive anguish on Pembroke Ireton's countenance, for if this meeting brought joy, it also awakened long-buried memories, that seemed to stalk abroad like disturbing ghosts. The happiness of the reconciliation itself, taught him to measure the loss he had experienced during the estrangement of half his lifetime. He rose as Mrs. Crawford entered the room, and presently she stood between him and her father.

"Uncle Pembroke" threw his arm lightly around her waist, and the blind father, feeling her close presence, did the same; thus again their hands met, and most fitly as it seemed. Frances laughed merrily, but releasing herself from this somewhat awkward embrace, kept firm hold of a hand of each.

"I see clearly," she exclaimed with mock gravity, "that there is no such thing as contentment in the world; and this, I suppose, because the prizes in life are more fairly divided than we would have them. Here is Uncle Pembroke, with a fame not second to that of any living painter; that is his prize. You, dear papa, have drawn from fortune's wheel a wife that dotes upon you, and a quantity of unruly children, that always have their own way, and only pay you back for their indulgences by a vast amount of love. Uncle Pembroke thinks your prize the more precious of the two, and ridiculous as the idea is, we must humor it, I suppose."

"It is hardly kind to say that he is right," exclaimed the blind man with much feeling.

"But it is true," sighed the artist. "Princess! I hear but to obey."

"Of course. But if I consent to be 'your child,' and papa and Edward give me away to you, it is to be quite understood that the whole family shares in your artist-glory. Henceforth, we are all to walk inches taller, in fact, as if we wore high-heel shoes—which our pride in you will constitute."

"I have felt pride in Pembroke's genius all my life," exclaimed Mr. Ireton, "and I am thus the richer of the two."

"But not the pride, open, joyous, and triumphantly we shall feel now. Half our acquaintances do not know of the relationship; and by the way, I must now revise my visiting-list," and Frances tossed back her head, as if she were rehearsing the part of a newly-made Duchess.

Beneath her playful manner she had spoken truths, which brought a host of healing influences with them—truths, too, which bridged over all the rough places in the reconciliation.

It was said that Frances Crawford had never acquired a nick-name; but it is the case no longer, for her husband and her uncle at least commonly call her "Ida," and in their merriest moods, address her as "Your Highness." This is not to be wondered at, seeing that Pembroke Ireton has already painted three pictures of the "Princess," contriving, by the way, to introduce the heads of Lotty and Bessy among his "violet-hooded doctors." This, however, is all that he has done for a long time, for the entreaties of affection have prevailed, and he spares his eyes as much as possible, and follows the instruction of his medical advisers, who give him more hope than he before entertained of preserving the blessings of sight. Once more the brothers are fondly united; and the past is not always a prohibited subject.—Pembroke Ireton confesses his belief, that with the fulcrum of domestic happiness, he should have achieved even greater things in Art than he has done; that as the heart withers, the intellect contracts; and that no belief in a vocation is any real excuse for the omission of one near human duty; moreover, that the Human Life is the fountain of inspiration to poets and painters, and that to act poetry, is far nobler than to write or paint it. Long years of loneliness were the penalty of his former fatal mistake; but through his brother's family, the artist at last experiences very many of the blessings of domestic life.

IF WE SUPPOSED THESE HIGHFALUTING, lying advertisements about Lumber were believed, we should go right out of the business. Our experience is, however, that men who want to buy lumber have full as many brains as those who want to sell—only a board and scantling left?—and twenty per cent. knocked off from them—how it does make us feel?

BININGER'S OLD LONDON DOCK GIN

A. M. BININGER & CO.,
(ESTABLISHED 1778.)
SOLE IMPORTERS
No. 338 Broad Street, New York.

THIS DELICIOUS TONIC, ESPECIALLY for the use of the Medical Profession and the Family,

Possesses those INTRINSIC medicinal properties (Tonic and Diuretic) which belong to an OLD AND PURE GIN.

The business of manufacturing spurious Gins, and offering them as beverages, under the titles, "Aromatic," "Cordial," "Medicated," &c., has become so common that the public are justly suspicious of nearly everything that is offered under similar forms, and the trade has thus been brought into disrepute. It has remained for our house (established in 1778) to supply the pressing popular need, and to inaugurate a new era in the history of the Trade. We trust that our established reputation—founded upon eighty years of experience—abundantly vindicates our claims to public confidence.

N. B.

A comparison of "Bininger's Old London Dock Gin" with others bearing similar names, will establish its superiority, and make other Caution unnecessary.

The House is in Committee of the Whole on the general file.

Washington Matters.

WASHINGTON, March 18.—3 P. M.

Accounts from Chili represent a somewhat improved condition of affairs, so far as our country is concerned.

It appears that both the Government and Revolutionists had been collecting certain bands of American citizens, but by the prompt intervention of Senator Bigler, the Government was made responsible.

Negotiations with Nicaragua for another treaty will soon be resumed.

The rejection of the treaty introduced on Friday in Congress, was a surprise to our Government, which had no doubt of its ratification by the Senate.

The impression seems to be that Congress will remain in session till about the 1st of July.

The Washington correspondent of the New York Tribune says: The Special Committee of the House on the Pacific Railroad, discussed the various propositions yesterday, and will resume the subject to-morrow, with the intention of taking a decisive vote on it on Tuesday. All indications warrant the belief that they will report in favor of the roads that are already began under the auspices of J. Edgar Thompson, Stearns, and other railroad men, and the other along what is known as the Central route, stretching from St. Louis to San Francisco, with a branch extending to Oregon, in the hands of the northern railroad interests.

The Committee has not reached the point of the propositions of land and money to be appropriated, but the bill which contemplates two roads proposes an advance of $100,000 after the first fifty miles is built and equipped the sum to be continued as each fifty miles is constructed, and the Government being secured by an original mortgage on the road and property.

Arrival of the Steamship Teutonia.

NEW YORK, March 19.—3 P. M.

The Teutonia brings three days later news from Europe.

The Emperor's message was received in Nice with enthusiasm.

The Italian party is greatly agitated.

VIENNA.—To the enquiries of representatives of some foreign provinces, Austria replies that its interests have not been directly affected by the annexation of Savoy to France.

The Papal Government has prohibited commerce by transit between Ancona and Romagna.

Thousands of citizens are singing an address to the great powers in favor of annexation.

ROME.—The Pope is said to be willing to grant concessions if the legations will submit.

The London Journal asserts positively that the Prince of Wales would leave for Canada in the latter part of May, probably in the Renown, a 90 gun ship. Instructions will be sent out to the Canadian authorities to make the necessary arrangements for his reception

From Cuba.

NEW YORK, March 14—3 P. M.

The Teutonia brings Havana dates to the 14th. The weather at Havana continued cool. Sugar was dull.

An affray occurred in the harbor of Havana, on board the ship Henry Warden, of Baltimore, in which the second mate was killed, and the first mate dangerously wounded.

The people of Cuba are still rejoicing at the Spanish victories in Morocco, and generous contributions are being made for the benefit of the Spanish army.

Discharged from Custody.

NEW YORK, March 19th.—3 P. M.

Mr. Boyington who was apprehended a few nights ago by two of the Sixth Ward officers on suspicion of embezzling $200,000 worth of Post Office scrip from the Department at Washington, was yesterday discharged from custody. Col. Forney sent on a despatch setting forth that the accounts of Mr. Boyington, while in office, had been examined, and were found to be correct.

Female Emigrant Protection Bills.

WASHINGTON, March 18.

The Senate and House have each passed a bill to protect female emigrant passengers.—It only remains for either branch of Congress to concede in the action of the other, a matter more of form than of substance, as the two bills are similar in their provisions. Such an arrangement will probably be consummated during the present week.

Hotel Charges at Charleston.

WASHINGTON, March 18—3 P. M.

Direct information has been laid before the Democratic Congressional Committee, to the effect that every man who registered his name at the Charleston Hotels, during the sitting of the Charleston Convention, would be charged $7 per day. An ordinary parlor and chamber will cost $50 per day.

Navigation Open on Lake Erie.

DUNKIRK, N. Y., March 19—3 P. M.

Navigation is open between this and the western ports of Lake Erie.

The N. Y. & Erie R R. screw steamer Oswego, from Cleveland and New York for Toledo, arrived yesterday afternoon with cargo of corn, pork and flour.

The steamer Ocean left Toledo at the same time.

A Terrible Affray.

ST. LOUIS, March 18—9 P. M.

A street encounter occurred yesterday afternoon in Jefferson City, between James Hughes, Deputy Warden of the Penitentiary, and Mr. Dozier, formerly a guard of the prison, resulting in the almost immediate death of both. The cause was an old grudge, aggravated by a recent political difference.—Both leave families.

NORFOLK, Va., March 19—9 P. M.

The bark Swan, from Cien Fuegos for, Baltimore with Molasses, is ashore on Cape Henry and the vessel and cargo will probably be a total loss. Eight of the men have been landed but five are still on board and at the mercy of the waves.

LATEST NEWS!

BY LAST NIGHT'S REPORT

Mexican Affairs.

WASHINGTON, March 19.—9 P. M.

The New Orleans papers of Thursday, received here by express, give the details of the Mexican news brought by the Star of the West.

Miramon approached Vera Cruz on the 26th ult., with 500 men. A numerous train of artillery and ammunition stores, are encamped four miles from the city. The head quarters were at Medelin. Miramon several times surveyed the city from the sand-hills. His principal Generals are Robles and Negrete; all the inhabitants fled at his approach.

The city was in the best state of defence. The garrison was composed of from 3,000 to 4,000 men, well supplied in every respect. General Iglesjas is in command, with Ampudia as Chief of the artillery.

Col. Dane, an Englishman, commands a new sand-fort recently erected near the city, mounting six 84-pounders. It is thought this fort will be able to resist the approach of Miramon, if the men are faithful.

On the 16th ult., Col. Virallado, who commanded one of the principal forts on the southern side, was detected in a conspiracy to blow up the fort on Miramon's approach, and the latter was to enter the city on that side. Thirty conspirators were banished from the city, and Virallado condemned to four years imprisonment.

Moran's Havana expedition raised the Mexican flag when out of Havana harbor. It was last heard of at Sisal.

As far as was known, the plan was to land on the coast at or near the mouth of the Medelin river, and thence communicate with Miramon.

Moran had on board a large quantity of ammunition, stores, and twelve and twenty-four pounders.

It was believed that several other vessels had sailed from Havana on the same mission. A well laden schooner is known to have sailed on the 16th. Meanwhile Juarez is on the look out for their expedition. He had a battery planted at the mouth of the Medelin river.

Six or seven schooner rigged gun-boats, mounting sixty-four guns, were stationed along the coast. The Indianola will tow the gun-boats to action.

The Savannah, Saratoga and Preble were anchored under the inside wall of San Juan De Ulloa ready to act in any emergency.

English, French and Spanish vessels were at San Francisco. The French commander and others had visited Miramon's camp. The result of the interview is unknown. Capt. Turner, of the Saratoga, had gone to Miramon's camp in behalf of the American citizens. He had not returned. It is stated that if Miramon does not guarantee full protection to the American flag and property of our citizens, that Capt. Harris will land 500 marines, armed with Minie rifles. The liberals and American citizens were urging Capt. Jarvis to capture Miramon's expedition which he had not decided to do when the Levant sailed. Lieut. Carter, who had arrived at New Orleans with dispatches for Washington, says that Vera Cruz was safe but he thinks Miramon will occupy Alverado. The Havana Deario says that Miramon has from 6,000 to 8,000 men well supported with artillery.

Later from California.

ST. LOUIS, March 18.

The following despatch, bringing one day's later news by overland mail, was received here last night.

SAN FRANCISCO, Feb. 25—5 P. M.

About 1100 letters were despatched by the overland mail yesterday.

R. E. Bretlers, a merchant of San Francisco, just returned from the Washoe mines, in Carson Valley, brings specimens of silver ore, which assay over $30,000 per ton.

The Democratic primary elections have been held in seventeen counties. The delegates to the State Convention, as far as heard from, stand 146 Latham, and 44 Gwin and Weller men, indicating without doubt that the Latham influence will secure the California delegation to the Charleston Convenion. The Latham delegates from San Francisco are in favor of sending Austin E. Smith to Charleston. He is a son of Hon. Wm. Smith of Va., and is favorable to Dickinson, of New York, for the Presidency.

MALLOY'S STATION, March 19—9 P. M.

The overland mail with regular San Francisco dates to the 27th and telegraph advices to the 28th ult. arrived here last night.

The California contribution for the relief of the Jews at Gibralter amounts to about $4,600.

A diagram of the original Comstock silver mine in Carson Valley shows the lead to be 2 1-2 miles long, leading north and south.—This is all claimed by 30 different companies who are piercing the hills in 24 places. A few months will establish the extent of the mine which as yet has only proved rich in one section, though evidences of silver are found through the entire extent.

LATEST BY TELEGRAPH.—The Assembly has passed a bill providing for the protection of California bond emigrants by the appointment of a permanent agent in New York.

Intense excitement prevails at Jacksonville, Oregon, in consequence of rich quartz discoveries there. One company took out $125,000 in gold. 800 pounds of quartz yielded 60 pounds of gold.

A horrible massacre of Indians at several villages around Humboldt Bay by a party of 40 whites had taken place.

Congressional Proceedings.

WASHINGTON, March 19—9 P. M.

SENATE.—On motion of Mr. Johnson, a resolution asking the President for information as to the Mountain Meadow massacre, was adopted.

On motion of Mr. Mason, a resolution was adopted asking the Secretary of State for information as to the proposed diplomatic mission from Japan.

Mr. Harlan introduced a bill to extend the rights of pre-emption over non-submerged lands in Iowa.

Mr. Chandler moved to make the St. Clair Flats bill the special order for Tuesday next at 1 o'clock. Lost.

The Homestead bill was taken up, and Mr. Nicholson spoke in favor of the passage of the Senate bill, after which the bill was postponed till Wednesday.

The bill declaratory of the acts for carrying into effect the first article of the treaty of 1819 with Spain, was taken up, and a lengthy report read. The bill provides for the payment of the interests awarded by the U. S. Judges in east Florida as part of the satisfaction stipulated in the acts of '33 and '33.

Mr. Toombs said the principal had been paid, but the Secretary of the Treasury refused the interest.

Mr. Mallory spoke in favor of the claim.

Adjourned.

HOUSE.—The House acted on the several amendments to the votes heretofore reserved for seperate votes, and was adopted empowering the Clerk to preserve order and decorum pending the election of a Speaker.

Mr. Reagn moved to refer the military academy bill, as returned from the Senate, with an amendment, authorizing the calling out of a regiment of mounted volunteers to the military committee, and state in favor of the amendment.

Mr. Cox made a speech in favor of affording material support to the Juarez government of Mexico, saying there is an international law which would justify us in suppressing a government as there is under Miramon at the capitol.

Mr. Reagan said he wanted the people of Texas protected. Let those of Mexico protect themselves.

Pending the question to refer the question to the military committee, the House adjourned.

Destructive Fire at St. Paul—Full Particulars.

ST. PAUL, 17th, VIA LA CROSSE, 19th.

Another destructive fire visited our city about 1 o'clock yesterday morning. A wooden building on the south side of Third street, near Jackson, was discovered to be on fire, and the flames spread with such rapidity and force as to entirely consume every building on that side of the street, between Robert and Jackson, together with dwelling houses in the rear.

From Third street the conflagration extended down Robert street, taking every building in its course to Fourth st., with the exception of Vettal Guerin's unoccupied stone building, and Willoughby's stable. The stone building proved a barrier to its further progress in that direction, and probably prevented the destruction of all the buildings between Jackson and Robert streets. The total number of buildings entirely destroyed was thirty-four. They were mostly of wood. The upper stories of some of them were used as residences, and probably some fifteen or twenty families lost their homes for the time. It is difficult to estimate the total amount of the losses sustained by the fire, but no one sets it at less than $100,000.

Capture of Mexican War Steamers by the U. S. Frigate Saratoga.

NEW ORLEANS, March 19.—9 P. M.

The Mexican steamer Marquess has arrived below, a United States prize in charge of Lieut. Chapman, of the Saratoga. The Saratoga's men also captured the steamer Miramon, which arrived at noon; both vessels were captured off Antonio Bezardo, on the morning of the 6th, after a brief action and with only a slight loss. The steamer Marquese has a portion of the prisoners and the U. S. ship Preble is to bring the rest. Alvarado is reported to be in possession of Miramon. The equator of the American consul at Vera Cruz has been revoked. The city of Mexico is surrounded by the liberals.

Washington Matters.

WASHINGTON, March 19 —3 P. M.

Commander Maury has written a long letter to Senator Gwin on the subject of interoceanic telegraph, showing in a strong light the incalculable advantages which would result therefrom to the Government in military affairs, and to commence surveys.

The House to-day worked under the recently amended rules. The experiments show that if strictly observed they will effect a marked improvement in the manner of transacting business.

All the States, save probably California and Oregon, will, it is said, be represented in the Constitutional Union Convention. The supposition is that Senator Crittenden will at that time convene the National Executive Committee, in which event a large delegation will be present at Baltimore on the 9th of May.

The Secretary of the Interior has despatched an agent to Wisconsin to investigate the alleged frauds on the Menomonee Indians.

NEW ORLEANS, March 19.—9 P. M.

Arrived below, the war steamer General Miramon, a United States prize in charge of Lieut. Miner, from Vera Cruz, 13th.

Miramon appeared before the city on the 5th and notified the foreign Representatives of his intention to cannonade the city. He made an attack on the night of the 7th but was repulsed by the liberals who are confident of a successful resistance.

COMMERCIAL.

MONDAY P. M., March 19th, 1860.

Receipts by Railroad for the 24 hours ending noon to-day include:

Flour, bbls	644
Wheat, bus	10,505
Oats, bus	231
Barley, bus	361

The flour market was at a stand to-day, the continued depression in this article at New York, frightening buyers out of the market. No sales could have been made, except at a material reduction from last week's prices, but we did not hear of any offering at lower figures.

Wheat was also extremely dull, and the market closed with a downward tendency. No. 1 was held nominally at $1,00 in store, and No. 2 at 95c. A few small lots of No. 1 sold at $1,01 delivered, but towards the close there were no buyers at this price. Club and extra for milling ranged from $1,03 to $1,05—a decline of 1c. The sales of Wheat were smaller than for any day during the past two weeks.

Coarse grains were dull. Oats sold at 32c delivered; Shelled Corn at 51c; and Barley at 62@75c for No. 2 to good No. 1. Timothy Seed fine at $2,65@2,75 for ordinary to prime. Hides steady.

NEW YORK BANK STATEMENT.—The statement of the New York Banks for the week ending to-day, as reported by telegraph, shows the following changes:

Increase in loans	$260,070
Decrease in specie	1,010,655
Decrease in circulation	38,734
Increase in deposits	1,068,115

CHICAGO WHOLESALE MARKET.—The receipts of the articles named, at Chicago, Saturday, were as follows:

Flour, bbls	971
Wheat, bus	13,556
Corn, bus	56,536
Oats, bus	4,562
Barley, bus	915
Rye, bus	25

Of the market the Press & Tribune says:

The inquiry for flour to-day was again limited and the market flat and heavy, with sales of good Spring extras at $5,00@5,08, and good super at $4,15. There was a good speculative and shipping demand for wheat, and the market advanced fully 2c on 'Change, but closed rather tame under the influence of dull news from New York. About 12,000 bus changed hands at 97½@99c for old receipts, and 95@99c for new receipts No. 2 Spring, and $1,00@1,17 for lots on track, according to quality. Corn was in fair demand and the market steady, with liberal transactions at 42½@43c for old receipts, and 42½@43½c for new receipts No. 1; 42c for No. 2; and 41c for rejected—the market closing firm. The news of the burning of a warehouse at Havana, on the Illinois River, with 70,000 bushels of Corn, was received on 'Change, and as the grain would probably all have been sent to this market, it doubtless contributed somewhat towards sustaining prices. Oats were in good request for shipment to St. Louis, and the market in consequence was strengthened—prices advancing about ½c, with sales on track at 34½@35½c. Rye was quiet, with limited sales at 52@53c. Barley was in good demand and firmer—sale s being more liberal at 60c for No. 1 on track, and 64c delivered. Timothy Seed was active and firm at $2.55@2,57½ for good to prime, and $2,60@2,70 for interior. Clover dull at $4. Millet Seed is inquired for to some extent, but there is little or none offering, and prime would command $1,00@1,12½. Provisions quiet. Highwines dull, with limited sales at 19½c. Alcohol, 41c.

CINCINNATI MARKET, MARCH 16TH.—Receipts at Cincinnati on Wednesday, as published in the Gazette, include:

Wheat, bus		1,066
Oats, bus		3,630
Barley, bus		1,733

Pork & Bacon, hhds		25
" "	trcs	1
" "	bbls	9
" "	bxs	5
" "	lbs	361,248

In regard to the markets the Gazette says:

The buoyancy so suddenly acquired in the provision market, yesterday, was not fully sustained to-day. Buyers were not as anxious as was expected, and failing to follow the views of holders closely, the latter met buyers freely at yesterday's quotations, to a sufficient extent to supply and more than supply the demand.—Mess pork sold to the extent of 1,500 bbls at $17 for country, (and one small lot of city), and $17,25@17,37 for best city brands. There were a few transactions in bacon at 7¾ and 9½c for shoulders and sides, and at these figures there was a fair demand, but holders mostly asked ⅛c more. In bulk meats the only sale heard of was 50 hhds shoulders at 5¾c, packed; 6¾ and 8¾c, loose, were mostly asked for shoulders and sides. About 1,000 bbls lard sold at 10½c. Buyers did not experience any difficulty in filling orders at this figure, though in many cases 10⅝@10¾c was asked.

Flour was dull and heavy at $5,50 for superfine.—The receipts were heavy, comprising 2,545 bbll, 1,902 bbls exported. The feeling in the sugar market continues to improve. The trade are becoming reconciled to high prices, and having no reason to apprehend a decline, are supplying their wants pretty freely at from 7¾ to 8¾c. There was also an improved demand for molasses, with sales at from 40 to 41c. In the small way 41@42c were the prevailing rates. Coffee firm at from 13½@14½c for Rio.

ST. LOUIS MARKET, MARCH 16TH.—The Democrat says of the market:

In the provision trade there is some firmness, and a good deal is doing in the aggregate, though it is divided into many lots, and among many commission men. But the large quantity is seen in the shipments by steamers to Memphis and the Southern river coast generally. Among to-day's sales are different lots of baconed ribbed sides in casks at 9½c, and clear at a trifle less than 11c. Holders of mess pork feel quite easy about making sale, and lard is doing very well. There are good qualities of bacon in hands of various commission merchants, and rates are as last quoted.

Flour—The market is quiet, with a steady demand for medium lots. Sale of 500 bbls city superfine, private; 500 do at 5,80, on board; 104 do country extra at 5,65; 200 do private; 50 do city double extra at 7,65, and 300 bags country superfine at 2,55 ⅌ bag.

BRITISH EXPORTS—A return has been issued by the Board of Trade of the declared value of British and Irish produce and manufactures exported from the United Kingdom during the past year. The totals, as compared with the preceding year, are as follows:

Exports.	1858.	1859.
British Possessions	£40,922,457	£46,125,056
United States	14,491,448	22,611,283
All other countries	61,594,851	61,704,093
Total	£116,605,756	£130,440,427

Upon this statement the London Times remarks:

The shipments to the United States, which experienced a serious check after the panic of 1857, have recovered to a point beyond their former scale, and are now more than 17 ⅌ cent of our total exports, foreign and colonial, and 27 ⅌ cent of our foreign exports alone. It is to be remarked that our trade with European States is every year becoming of a more secondary character as compared with that which we have established among our colonial and American progeny. It is to these quarters that the magnificent augmentation exhibited in the present total over 1858, and which renders it of unprecedented amount, is entirely due. The general increase is £13,834,671, while to the colonies and the United States it was £14,022,434. The balance of our business carried on with all other parts of the world resulted therefore, in a falling off.

MARINE ITEMS.

MONDAY, P. M.

The Buffalo Republic says that Col. Prince has made a motion in the Canadian Parliaments towards compelling steamers on the lakes to carry masts and sails to be used in case of machinery becoming disabled, or other necessity.

This is a good move, and we should like to see it carried out to a practical result. The D. & M. Railway steamers are, we believe, the only Lake steamers that are completely rigged with masts and sails, and the Company are entitled to much credit for inaugurating this feature of steam navigation upon the Lakes. Besides the additional safety which it secures, it ingreatly the appearance of a steamer.

STEAMERS FOR THE LAKE SUPERIOR TRADE.—Ten steamers are already announced to run between Cleveland, Detroit and Lake Superior, the coming season, as follows: Steamboat North Star, and screw steamers Iron City, Northern Light and Fountain City from Cleveland; Steamboats Illinois, Sea Bird, Arctic, screw steamers Montgomery, Gen. Taylor and Mineral Rock, from Detroit.

The Lady Elgin, we presume, will run as usual from Chicago and this port for Lake Superior. It occurs to us that neither Chicago or Milwaukee are awake to the great importance of the Lake Superior trade.

THE TUG LEVIATHAN, Capt. HART, left port for Mackinaw to-day to get off the bark American Republic, which ashore on the North Manitou Island last fall Oswego is also to leave in a few days to get off the schooner J. F. Kirkland, ashore in the same locality.

SHIPPING WHEAT TO ST. LOUIS.—The schooner H. L. Lansing was chartered to-day to load with corn at Chicago for Buffalo at 10c, taking 10,000 bushels wheat from this port to Chicago at 2c, which, we understand, is to be shipped thence by rail to St. Louis. The Lansing will load to-morrow at ANGUS, SMITH & Co's elevator, and after taking on her load of corn at Chicago will return to this port until the opening of the straits.

THE BUFFALO HARBOR.—The Detroit Tribune learns that Buffalo harbor is under a heavy blockade of ice, the removal of which will of course depend on the weather; but it is evident that the harbor can in no event be open before the 1st. On Monday night last, snow fell to the depth of ten or twelve inches.

There is said to be plenty of ice all along the southern shore of Lake Erie.

THE GERMAIN STEAMSHIP.—A company is now in formation in Buffalo having in view the building of a steamship in accordance with the plans of ROLLIN GERMAIN, of that city. The following are the conditions upon which the company is organized:

Mr. Germain offers to convey to said company all rights to his patents relating to steam navigation, for Lakes Erie, St. Clair, Huron, Michigan and Superior, and the rivers and waters connecting said Lakes, and the Hudson and Niagara rivers, and to receive therefor one-half of the capital stock of said company, on which no dividends shall be paid and on which he shall receive nothing, until the amount of the cost of the first boat shall have been earned, over and above all expenses of running and operating said boat; after which he shall own one-half of the property, and receive one-half of the profits of said company.

THE TUG OSWEGO.—We had the pleasure to day of meeting that true sailor, Capt. Kimball, of the wrecking tug Oswego. He leaves immediately for Milwaukee, to fit out the Oswego, and in about a week he goes with her to get off the schooner J. P. Kirtland, ashore on North Manitou, about half a mile from the American Republic. He will afterwards turn his attention to a scow near the same locality. Of course they will both be got off.—Det. Tribune, Friday eve.

FROM LAKE HURON.—The Forester got in early this afternoon from Forestville and Port Huron, with a very fair load of passengers and freight. She saw no ice.

Capt. Ward informs us that the steamer Kaloolah, which started from Port Huron a few days since for Goderich, was unable to get into the latter port on account of the ice. She had returned, and was lying at Sarnia.

The ports on the east shore are probably all choked up with ice. Aside from this, Lake Huron is no doubt entirely clear for all practical purposes.—Ibid.

A NEW STEAMBOAT PROJECT.—Since the Minnesota Packet Company have determined to cut off Dubuque, Dunleith and Galena from a daily line of communication with St. Paul, at the bidding of a few Railroad men at Prairie du Chien, the Illinois Central Railroad Company have, we are credibly informed, determined to run a daily line of packets, consisting of five boats, from this point to St. Paul.—Dubuque Times.

JUDSON'S PATENT

GOVERNOR VALVES,

FOR REGULATING THE

MOTION OF STEAM ENGINES,

WARRANTED THE MOST PERFECT Governor of Steam Power in the world, and like all really great inventions, the most simple. Manufactured by Judson & Snow, at Rochester, N. Y., Selye Buildings, near R. R. Depot.

CAUTION TO INFRINGERS.

Patented in the United States, Nov. 5th, 1850. Reissued, Jan. 4th, 1854. Second Patent, March 4th, 1851. Patented also in Great Britain and the Canadas, June 15th 1851.

This improvement consists in making regulating valves to open with a rapidly increasing ratio of opening, by increasing the width of the opening made in the valve—or by accelerating the opening motion of the valve—or by combining increased width of opening, with accelerated valve motion. My patent Valves and Governors are so arranged as to give the resistance to the piston's motion, (or retard of the engine,) the power to open the valve just the exact amount of aperature necessary to counteract that resistance; and from the aperture, by the addition of equal amounts of resistance, notwithstanding that the action of the governor is continually decreasing in its effects.

I therefore reverse the action of valves combined with governors, as heretofore used. And as this effect can be produced by many different mechanical devices, (apparently not similar, but really indentical with my improvement,) by which infringers have imposed upon the public, I therefore caution and request all persons interested, to examine carefully all alleged improvements in valves or governors, to see if the application of this truth or principle, first discovered and applied by me, is not involved in their arrangements;—and thereby prevent a fraud upon the purchaser and inventor, both of which are at present much annoyed by their piratical depredations. THE GREATEST

MEDICAL

DISCOVERY

OF THE AGE.

MR. KENNEDY, OF ROXBURY, HAS discovered in one of our common pasture weeds a remedy that cures

EVERY KIND OF HUMOR,

FROM

THE WORST SCROFULA DOWN TO A COMMON PIMPLE.

He has tried it in over eleven hundred cases, and never failed except in two cases, both thunder humor. He has now in his possession over one hundred certificates of its value, all within twenty miles of Boston.

Two bottles are warranted to cure a nursing sore mouth.

One to three bottles will cure the worst kind of pimples on the face.

Two or three bottles will cure the system of biles.

Two bottles are warranted to cure the worst canker in the mouth and stomach.

Three or five bottles are warranted to cure the worst kind of Erysipelas.

One to two bottles are warranted to cure all humor in the eyes.

Two bottles are warranted to cure running of the ears and blotches among the hair.

Four to six bottles are warranted to cure corrupt and running ulcers.

One bottle will cure scaly eruptions of the skin.

Two or three bottles are warranted to cure the worst kind of ringworm.

Two or three bottles are warranted to cure the most desperate case of rheumatism.

Three or four bottles are warranted to cure salt rheum.

Five to eight bottles will cure the worst case of scrofula.

A benefit is always experienced from the first bottle, and a perfect cure is warranted when the above quantity is taken.

ROXBURY, Mass.

DEAR MADAM:—The reputation of the Medical Discovery, in curing all kinds of humors, is so well established, by the unanimous voice of all who have ever used it, that I need not say anything on the subject, as the most skillful physicians and the most careful druggists in the country are unanimous in its praise.

In presenting the Medical Discovery to your notice, I do it with a full knowledge of its curative powers, in relieving all, and curing most of the diseases to which you are unfortunately so liable. That most excruciating disease to an affectionate mother.

NURSING SORE MOUTH

is cured as if by a miracle; your own temper is restored to its natural sweetness, and your babe from short and fretful naps to calm and sweet slumbers; and the Medical Discovery becomes a fountain of blessings to your husband and household.

In the more advanced stages of

CANKER

it extends to the stomach, causing

DYSPEPSIA

which is nothing but canker on the stomach; then on the intestines and creating a sinking, gone feeling, and an indifference even to the cares of your family.

Your stomach is

RAW AND INFLAMED,

your food distresses you, and you can only take certain kinds, and even of that your system does not get half the nourishment it contains, as the acrimonious fluid of the canker eats it up; then your complexion loses its bloom and becomes sallow or greenish, and your best day is gone. For want of nourishment your system becomes loose and flabby, and the fibres of your body become relaxed. Then follows a train of diseases which the Medical Discovery is peculiarly adapted to

CURE;

Palpitation of the heart, pain in the side, weakness of the spine and small of the back, pain of the hip-joint when you retire, irregularity of the bowels, and also that most excruciating of diseases the

PILES.

How many thousands of poor women are suffering from this disease and pining away a miserable life, and their next door neighbor does not know the cause. I wish to impress on your mind that good old proverb, "an ounce of prevention is better than a pound of cure." In the

MEDICAL DISCOVERY

you have both the preventative and the cure, with this great and good quality, that it will never, under any circumstances, do you an injury. Yours truly,

DONALD KENNEDY.

DR. CHURCHILL'S REMEDY.

WINCHESTER'S GENUINE PREPARATION OF THE

HYPOPHOSPHITES

OF LIME AND OF SODA,

(Made from the Formula of Dr. J. F. Churchill,)

FOR THE PREVENTION AND CURE OF CONSUMPTION!

THE SUCCESS OF THIS NEW REMEDY, (discovered by Dr. Churchill, of Paris,) is obtaining the most UNBOUNDED POPULARITY throughout Europe and the United States. It is a purely SCIENTIFIC PREPARATION, and acts with INVARIABLE EFFICACY in all stages of Pulmonary and Nervous Diseases.

This Remedy has not only a curative effect, but will, if used wherever there exists a suspicion of the disease, PREVENT ITS DEVELOPMENT, and thus act, as a preservative with regard to Consumption, just as vaccination does with regard to small-pox.

What the Medical Profession Say.

"In no instance have I found the Remedy to fail."—Dr. Churchill.

"I have used your preparation of the Hypophosphites with the most happy effect"—C. Fisher, M. D. Evansville, Ill.

"I have been astonished in witnessing the good effects of the Hypophosphites. The statements in your pamphlet are not at all exaggerated. My patient was just entering the last stage of tubercular consumption."—S. Moses, M. D., Hoosic Falls, N. Y.

"They exert an important remedial influence over the tubercular disease by improving the nervous strength and invigorating the nutritive functions."—Dr. W. E. Rust, Morristown, N. J.

"I have derived more satisfaction from the use of your Hypophosphites than from all other forms of medication combined."—Dr. Geo. W. Marie, Columbus, O.

"If, on the earliest appearance of the symptoms, the patient takes daily about ten grains of the Hypophosphites, he will speedily find himself in the enjoyment of such health as he, perhaps, had never known in his life before."

"Winchester's Hypophosphites are unexceptional in their preparation."—Am. Druggists' Circular.

"Mr. Winchester is worthy of all confidence, and devotes himself enthusiastically to these preparations in all their variety of combination. * * Prepared strictly by Dr. Churchill's method."—D. Meredith Reese, M. D., New York.

"LOWELL, O., July 5, 1859.—I have had several cases given up by attending physicians who are now exempt from all the symptoms of pulmonary disease.—I have used the Remedy in my own case, with decided success. It was regarded as hopeless by physicians and friends, and even by myself, under the 'old treatment.' I am now able to ride, in attending the sick, as many miles, perhaps, in a day, as any other physician in the country."—W. F. Clark, M. D.

"The Hypophosphites are most appropriate Remedies in large class of affections resulting from loss of nervous force."—Boston Medical and Surgical Journal.

Dr. Churchill's Work on Consumption,

AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL.

THROUGH A TRIAL OF many years and through every nation of civilized men, AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL has been found to afford more relief and to cure more cases of pulmonary disease than any other remedy known to mankind. Cases of apparently settled consumption have been cured by it, and thousands of sufferers who were deemed beyond the reach of human aid have been restored to their friends and usefulness, to sound health and the enjoyments of life, by this all-powerful antidote to diseases of the lungs and throat.—The dry, hacking cough, the glassy eye, and the pale, thin features of him who was lately lusty and strong, whisper to all but him CONSUMPTION. He tries every thing; but the disease is knawing at his vitals, and shows its fatal symptoms more and more over all his frame. He is taking the CHERRY PECTORAL now; it has stopped his cough and made his breathing easy; his sleep is sound at night; his appetite returns, and with it his strength. The dart which pierced his side is broken. Scarcely any neighborhood can be found which has not some living trophy like this to shadow forth the virtues which have won for the CHERRY PECTORAL an imperishable renown. But its usefulness does not end here. Nay, it accomplishes more by prevention than cure. The countless colds and coughs which it cures are the seed which would have ripened into a dreadful harvest of incurable diseases. Influenza, Croup, Bronchitis, Hoarseness, Pleurisy, Whooping Cough, and all irritations of the throat and lungs are easily cured by the CHERRY PECTORAL if taken in season. Every family should have it by them, and they will find it an invaluable protection from the insidious prowler which carries off the parent sheep from many a flock, the darling lamb from many a home.

Authenticated evidence of these facts, with directions for the treatment of each complaint, may be found in Ayer's American Almanac, of which we publish three millions, and scatter them broadcast over the earth, in order that the sick everywhere may have before them the information it contains.—Druggists and dealers in medicine generally have them for distribution gratis, and also for sale these remedies, prepared by Dr. J. C. AYER, Practical and Analytical Chemist, Lowell, Mass.

ARE YOU SICK?

Then you can't be cured too soon. Don't delay until your complaint is incurable, and then mourn when it is too late. Four-fifths of all the graves which people the church yards, might be cured by Ayer's Cathartic Pills, if taken in season. Don't go dragging through the Spring, faint, sleepy and listless, because your blood is loaded with bile. Don't wear the Headache, Heartburn, and their kindred disorders, because the stomach is foul. Don't parade yourself around the world, covered with Pimples, Blotches, Ulcers, Sores, and all or any of the unclean diseases of the skin, because your system wants cleansing. Don't show yourself about, lean, haggard, all caved in, because your Stomach and Bowels need strengthening into healthy action.—Ayer's Pills set these things right as sure as water quenches fire. They purify the body and blood, and restore their functions into healthy activity which you can feel as quickly as they are taken.—They are the one great medical wonder of the age, recognized by all who know their virtues, and many thousands know them. Take the Cherry Pectoral for a cough, and the Pills for all derangements requiring a purgative medicine.

Prepared by JAMES C. AYER, Practical and Analytical Chemist, Lowell, Mass., and sold by JOHN RICE, Milwaukee, J. H. REED & CO., Chicago, and all Dealers in Medicine everywhere.
